Dear Geraldine:

Thank you for your letter of June 2, 1970. Unfortunately I only received it on June 27 due to the failure of the NAACP to forward it to me promptly. Under special cover Barbara Morris is sending you $10.00 for your convenience.

Let me know whether or not you have gone before the Parole Board. The Maximum amount of time you could legally serve based on the conviction under which you are sentenced is a year.

We did explain to Martin why he received no letter from you. He is the same as usual, strong and determined and quite satisfied with the decision returned by Judge Mortley. Barbara Morris and I expect to see him sometime during the first two weeks of July. Keep your spirits up and let me know if you want me to do anything for you.

Sincerely,

JF:er
